dinner parties, enjoying the view of the azure waters and one of the most famous buildings on the Riviera.

The kitchen is generously sized and located separately from the living space, enabling cooking aromas to remain within the dedicated culinary space.

Included with this remarkable property is a large cellar located in the basement, offering abundant storage space within your residence. Additionally, a chambre de bonne, or bedsit, on the floor above adds versatility to the space, ideal for accommodating extra guests or service staff.

While the apartment has undergone some light decoration, there's tremendous potential for the next owner to transform it into a luxurious modern space. With a bit of renovation, its new owner could capitalise on the space bringing it up to the highest standards of Monégasque living.

Living in the coveted Carré d'Or neighbourhood in Monaco is something most of the world can only dream of. Luxury boutiques, restaurants, and cafes lie a number of steps from your front door, not to mention the Place du Casino and Metropole shopping centre.
