Life annuity sale. Located on the heights of the district of La Rousse-Saint Roman, sheltered from view and in a quiet environment. Exceptional and very rare villa, inspired by the «Belle Epoque» style. Built in 1894, this listed residence was considered as one of the most beautiful architectures of its time in the Principality of Monaco, the French Riviera and the Italian Riviera. Its richly decorated facade is an unmistakable eye-catcher, while the rounded balconies, cornices and turquoise ceramic decoration further enhance the elegance of this building.

The villa is in perfect condition and very well maintained, and has preserved its beautiful old features, including its mouldings, its large volumes and its high ceilings, and offers an authentic charm that breathes the soul of its time. The 450 sqm property comprises 11 rooms spread over 4 floors and benefits from 174 sqm of exteriors. All floors are connected by an interior lift and staircases.

On the ground floor, a large terrace leads to the wrought iron entrance door. The entrance hall with cloakroom and toilet leads to a corridor leading to a first reception/dining room opening onto the outside, a kitchen with pantry and a guest toilet.
