Fontvieille is primarily a residential district, offering a mix of modern buildings and prestigious residences. The architecture is contemporary, and the district is known for its upscale residential complexes such as Seaside Plaza, Terrasses du Port or Palazzo Leonardo. Fontvieille features commercial areas with shops, restaurants (Beef Bar, La Salière and more), and a shopping center including a Carrefour Supermarket. The district has a small marina, Port de Fontvieille, which provides mooring for private yachts. Fontvieille is well-connected to the rest of Monaco, thanks to easy road connections and public transportation.
