Located in a charming environment on the Rock, this apartment offers a quiet atmosphere, perfect for mixed use

This bright third-floor apartment in the charming alleys of Le Rocher offers a flexible setup, currently set up as a studio but originally designed as a two-room apartment. It includes a bedroom open to the living room, an equipped kitchenette, and a large bathroom. The property also benefits from a small outdoor space in the form of a terrace or patio. With the possibility of mixed use, this apartment is ideal for combining living and professional activity, all free from any legislative constraints.
