The Fontvieille district is a modern and peaceful district. It is distinguished by its high-end residences, lush gardens, and breathtaking views of the Mediterranean. Well equipped with amenities, it offers a shopping centre, restaurants, sports and health facilities, as well as easy access to the rest of Monaco and neighbouring France. This district is also home to attractions such as the marina, the Animal Garden, and the Stade Louis-II, offering a living environment combining elegance, comfort and quality services.

Located in the popular Fontvieille district of Monaco, this closed box offers a secure space to accommodate two cars. Close to local residences and amenities, it enjoys easy and convenient access, ideal for residents or investors looking for a premium parking solution in an exclusive urban environment.
