pollution due to its proximity to the heliport. This sumptuous corner flat offers exceptional living space in the Principality and benefits from morning-to-evening sunshine thanks to its triple exposure. The property has its own private landing accessible via a secure lift. It comprises an entrance hall leading to a triple living room opening onto a sea-view, west-facing terrace surrounding the flat. A dining room, a large kitchen with adjoining tea room and a pantry/laundry room. A suite with bedroom, study, dressing room and very large bathroom with shower and jacuzzi. The study could be used as an additional bedroom. Two bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and bathroom/shower, a storage room and a guest WC with cloakroom.

The layout of the apartment can be changed, which would offer five bedrooms if necessary. Also, part of the terraces can be closed.

All the rooms are spacious and open onto a superb circular terrace. The bedrooms offer views of the Roseraie and the Palais Princier, while the living rooms offer views of the sea and the Port of Cap d'Ail.

2 parking spaces complete this property.
